

Programme 2023/4 updated October 2023

Tuesday September 5th 2023 2-30pm in the Manor House, Dawlish. A History of Southernhay, Exeter by Michael Richards

Saturday September 9th - Dawlish Walking Festival – Walk led by Suzanne Jones. History Group Walk - Eastern side of Dawlish Manor

Meet at Brookdale Terrace Bus Stop (direction Exeter) at 1.45pm for 1.55pm for the No.2 bus towards Exeter. Alight at Cockwood Harbour.
The walk will cover the history of Cofton and Cockwood before walking back to Dawlish as close to the old route that would have been taken pre-1750. The walk will be on lanes, pavements and grass paths and there are two hills. The walk finishes at St Gregory's Church at the heart of old Dawlish. Distance 5.2mile and will take about 2 hours.
Contact: dawlishwalkingfestival@gmail.com or 07999 218216 to book a place.

VISIT 3rd OCTOBER 2023 Powerderham Castle visit and tour - This tour is limited to 20 people. Meet at 2-30pm for a 2-45pm tour. Please E mail Bob to be added to the list. Price will be no more than £10 for members - Please be ready to pay Bob at the SEPTEMBER meeting.

Evening of 13th October 2023 Shaftsbury Theatre, Dawlish. Talking about Dawlish - David Force & Jim Hill,
David and Jim are speaking about Dawlish on Friday, 13th October in the evening at the Shaftsbury Theatre. Tickets cost ten pounds and can be purchased from the Shaftsbury Theatre (when open).

Tuesday November 7th 2023 at 2-30pm in the Manor House, Dawlish. Shaldon by Alec Collyer

Tuesday December 5th 2023 at 2-30pm in the Manor House, Dawlish. Events of a BBC Cameraman by Keith Gibson. A short guess the date quiz. Festive refreshments.

Tuesday January 9th 2024 at 2-30pm in the Manor House, Dawlish. The "Dartmoor Conchies" by Simon Dell MBE

Tuesday February 6th at 2-30pm in the Manor House, Dawlish. Grahame Fordham, the harbour master for Exeter Port Authority presents a talk about the Exeter Canal

Tuesday March 5th 2024 2-30pm in the Manor House, Dawlish. Dawlish Weather by Mike Trigger.

Tuesday April 2nd 2024, 2-30pm in the Manor House, Dawlish. AGM and talk "A short history of Cofton Holiday Camp" by Valerie Jeffery

Tuesday May 7th, 2-30PM in the Manor House, Dawlish. Sir Walter Raleigh – the Queen's favourite Devonian, by Phil Badcott